MASS TIME CHANGE: Please remember that the time for Palm Sunday Mass on Sunday, April 9th at Immaculate Conception Church will be at 9:45am instead of 9:30am. This is for April 9th only.

RELIGIOUS ED. CLASS: Religious Education classes will be cancelled on Sunday, April 9th due to many family conflicts. In lieu of class, we are asking that families please attend one or more Stations of the Cross Fridays during Lent at 7:00pm. A complete schedule of Stations of the Cross is included in this bulletin.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS: Stations of the Cross are held every Friday during Lent at 7:00pm.
Friday, April 14th – Pavilion – 5:00pm

ORGANIST WANTED! Mike Riggs, who plays for us at our 4:00pm Saturday evening masses has gotten a similar job very close to where he lives; and so will no longer be able to play at the 4:00pm Masses for us. If you, or someone you know, is qualified and interested, please call Mary Jo at the church office at 585-584-7031.

FOR THE HOLY THURSDAY WASHING OF THE FEET ARE THE FOLLOWING:

|------------------|------------------|
| Bruce Bernard | David Colantonio |
| Bernard Corcoran | Brian Dills |
| Bob Lacey | Darwin Lapp |
| Mark McAllister | Frank Miller |
| Don Roblee | Bob Shepard, Sr. |
| Tom Stringham | Craig Williams |

Jesus' disciples had no choice between accepting and not accepting their feet washed by their Master. Peter, who objected, received harsh words for it. And so, it is a privilege for any parishioner to be part of the reenactment of the wonderful example of love taught by our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ. Father Innocent

LADIES OF CHARITY: There will be a Ladies of Charity meeting on Thursday, April 13th at 1:00pm in Conlin Hall. All ladies of the parish are welcome to attend!

UPCOMING RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DATES:
May 7th and 14th

BBQ #2 – APRIL 23rd: Don't wait to be asked to help! Parishioner assignment notices are no longer sent out to help us save on postage. But, don't let that stop you from coming to help!

If you can't help physically there are a few things we need:

- Donations of pounds of butter
- Home baked pies or cakes by our very gifted bakers

Volunteers needed:

- Wednesday, April 19, 5:00pm to scrub potatoes and set up
- Saturday, April 22, 9:00am to grease and wrap potatoes and finish set up
- Sunday, April 23, to assist in the dining room, pie room or wherever else needed. Remember, more hands makes the work lighter!

RAFFLE TICKETS: Our annual BBQ Raffle tickets are available at the entrance of Immaculate Conception Church for each parishioner. Please be sure to take yours home to save us the expense of mailing them to you. Drawing for the raffle will be at our last Chicken BBQ on May 21st.

PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION: Today is called Passion Sunday because our Lord's love for us is so passionate that it remained unhindered by harsh mockery and a painful death on a cross. How passionate is your love for God? If He readily took up the cross for us, how ready are you to respond to His calling? If God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Fr. Andrew Lauricella at 716-847-5535. You can also check out the "Priest of the Month" stories on our website – www.buffalovocations.org.

K OF C CHICKEN BBQ: Our Lady of Batavia Knights of Columbus will sponsor a Chicken BBQ on Sunday, April 30, 2017 from 10:00am until sold out (take outs only). Pick-up will be at the rear of St. Mary's Church, Ellicott Street, Batavia. Cost for the dinner is $9.00 and includes ½ chicken, cole slaw, potatoes and dinner roll. Proceeds benefit local charities. For presale tickets call Mike at 343-3810.

ST. JOSEPH'S CLUB FAMILY PARTY: Attention all high school guys interested in discerning God's will for your life! You and your families are welcome to join us as we wrap up the year with food, fun, and fellowship at our annual St. Joseph's Club Family Party, Sunday, May 7th, 12:30pm, Christ the King Seminary Campus Center. Following the party, families are welcome to join Father Bill Quinlivan in a "Holy Hour for Vocations" beginning at 2pm. For more information or to register, contact ctkguys@gmail.com.

FAITH MOMENT REFLECTION: In times of difficulty and loss, we find comfort in those who offer us support and compassion. A kind word, a listening ear or a warm embrace can lift our spirits and encourage us. Although Jesus grieved over the loss of his friend Lazarus in today's Gospel, he calls to Lazarus and awakens him. Through this scripture reading, we know that Jesus understands any loss we may experience. He's been there and will help us through it. Jesus continues to reach out to us in our darkness today. Through those who show their care and concern for us, Jesus offers his love and mercy. We might sit in the dark tombs of our sadness, stress and difficult situations with a stone rolled in front of us, but we are not alone. We are encouraged to recognize the presence of Jesus in those who bring light and warmth on our cold and dark days.

Today's Faith Moment was provided by Christ the King Seminary. You can listen to Faith Moments on WLOF 101.7 FM, WBEN radio 930 AM, or at www.faithmomentsonline.org.

LENT – IT’S NOT JUST ABOUT “GIVING UP”:

Many people tend to consider Lent a time to give up chocolate, candy, or other things they normally enjoy. However, Lent is about honoring our faith. Below are various ways we can observe Lent:

- Attend morning Masses
- Attend the Stations of the Cross on Friday Evenings
- Read and Pray over the Sacred Scriptures
- Pray the Rosary
- Visit someone housebound

Make this Lent a time to reconnect with your faith, reach out to others, and prepare yourself for the celebration of Jesus’ Resurrection on Easter Sunday.

NO CLOSING HYMN DURING LENT: In the season of Lent, we “await the sacred paschal feasts with the joy of minds made pure” (Preface I for Lent).

However, the general tenor of this season is one of conversion through repentance for sin by fasting, prayer, and alms-giving. This more penitential tone is reflected in the Liturgy by the use of violet vestments, simpler decorations at the altar, and the omission of the Gloria and the Alleluia. Our celebrations of the Eucharist during this season will reflect this attitude by the use of the Confiteor (found on page 4 in the Heritage Missal and in our Mass response cards) for the Penitential Rite and the omission of a closing hymn.

MARRIAGE MOMENT: Research indicates that the average person listens for 17 seconds before interrupting. Sometimes one spouse may be more long winded than the other. Sometimes one hardly speaks at all. Pay attention to your words this next week. Try to meet in the middle.

PARENTING PERSPECTIVE: April 9 is Palm Sunday. Tell your children the story of how the people praised Jesus by waving palms. Of course, just a few days later we remember Jesus’ crucifixion on Good Friday. To learn how to make a palm cross with your child, visit www.youtube.com/watch?v=kmtg7m7lon8.

2017 LENT AND HOLY WEEK LITURGIES

STATIONS OF THE CROSS:

April 14th – Pavilion – 5:00pm

RECONCILIATION: The sacrament of Reconciliation will be held at the regularly scheduled time – from 3:15 to 3:45 at the Saturday Mass location, except for Holy Saturday when no confessions will be heard.

PALM SUNDAY MASSES: (April 9, 2017)

In East Bethany: 4:00pm Saturday

In Pavilion: 8:00am Sunday

In East Bethany: 9:45am Sunday

(Please note: this Sunday, Mass at East Bethany is 15 minutes later)

HOLY WEEK TRIDIUM:

Holy Thursday: (April 13, 2017) - 7:00pm

East Bethany - The Mass of the Lord’s Supper

Good Friday Ceremonies: (April 14, 2017)

5:00pm – Pavilion - Stations of the Cross

6:00pm – Pavilion - Good Friday Liturgy

Holy Saturday: (April 15, 2017)

8:30pm - Easter Vigil in East Bethany

(Please note: there is no 4:00pm Saturday Mass for Easter weekend. Also, no confessions will be heard on Holy Saturday.)

EASTER SUNDAY MASSES: Will be celebrated according to the standard of Sunday schedule.

LENTEN REGULATIONS:

Abstinence: All Catholics who have reached their 14th birthday are bound to abstain totally from meat on the following days: Ash Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent and Good Friday.

Fasting: All Catholics between their 18th and 59th birthdays are also bound to observe the Law of Fast on the following days: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This practice involves limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Light sustenance may be taken on two other occasions in the course of the day.

A GREAT SUCCESS

Upon This Rock was a success at Mary Immaculate Parish because of you! The results are in on our parish's contribution to this historic initiative:

FAMILIES PARTICIPATED with amazing support from so many parishioners.

$270,656 raised in order to enrich countless ministries within the Diocese of Buffalo.

IMPRESSIVE TURNOUT exceeding our expected goal of $244,500!

$94,186 RETURNS TO MARY IMMACULATE when all parishioners honor their pledges in full.

MANY HEARTFELT PRAYERS said by your priest: in both hope and thanks for your gratitude.

I couldn't have done this alone. Thank you always. Many blessings,

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHAT IS MY ROLE AS A PARISHIONER IN UPON THIS ROCK?

The Church always has counted on the broad-based support of its parishioners to accomplish its fundraising objectives.

All households will be asked to consider a gift to the campaign (over and above their continued annual support of the parish and Catholic Charities Appeal) as a major commitment of their charitable resources over a five-year period.

We need an extraordinary number of commitments to meet our goals. Please know each commitment to Upon This Rock will have a major and symbolic impact regardless of the amount.

HOW WILL I BE NOTIFIED WHEN IT IS TIME TO MAKE MY FIRST PAYMENT?

Donors choose a payment schedule—either monthly, quarterly, semiannually, or annually. Depending on the chosen frequency, you will be notified by mail on the first of the month in which payment is due. Reminders are sent out by The Foundation for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Buffalo and will have the Upon This Rock logo on the delivery envelope.

IS A PLEDGE LEGALLY BINDING?

No, a pledge is not legally binding. A pledge is a good-faith commitment made under a particular set of circumstances. If those circumstances change, donors can adjust their pledge payment schedule or balance accordingly.

WHY ARE PLEDGES EMPHASIZED, INSTEAD OF ONE-TIME GIFTS?

Pledged gifts are encouraged because they allow individuals and families the opportunity to spread payments over a multi-year period.

From similar campaigns, we have learned that donors who pledge are able to consider sacrificial gifts as much as four or five times larger than those who make one-time gifts. This is important for a fundraising effort of the size and scope of Upon This Rock.

HOW SHOULD I SUBMIT MY INITIAL PAYMENT?

Checks can be made payable to Upon This Rock.

HOW SHOULD I SUBMIT SUBSEQUENT PAYMENTS?

A donor may choose to pay monthly, quarterly, semiannually, or annually. Payment reminders will be sent by the Foundation according to the donor's chosen schedule. Upon This Rock offers donors a variety of options by which to make a pledge payment. Payments should not be made directly to the parish.

WHAT METHODS OF PAYMENTS ARE ACCEPTED?

A donor may fulfill a pledge using a credit card or through electronic fund transfer from a checking account.

Donors also may choose to give gifts of stock, property, through their estate, corporate matching gifts, etc. For more information, please contact your pastor or the campaign office.

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith.

April 2017

Mary Immaculate Parish

Rev. Innocent Diala, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Zita of Lucca

Born to poor, pious parents in

Monsagrati, Italy,

St. Zita became the servant of the wealthy Fatinelli family when she was twelve. For her hard work, piety, and generosity, she was despised by her fellow servants and overburdened by her employers. Eventually, her love and humility won over her enemies, and she was given charge of all household affairs. Famous for helping the sick, the poor, and the imprisoned, she is the patroness of domestic workers.

Heart to heart

There is nothing wrong with "pestering" God (Matthew 7:7), but think: if this were all we did with our loved ones, what quality of relationship would that be? Instead, God seeks a personal relationship with each of us — to converse with us heart-to-heart. Of course, tell him what's on your heart, but don't forget to listen to him, too.

"Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you"
(James 4:8).

Healthy habits for happy hearts

Human beings are creatures of habits — we love our comfortable routines. Healthy diet and exercise practices make our bodies strong. The same is true of spiritual habits. They can strengthen our souls. The key to living a happy life is to develop healthy habits of the heart.

Humility. Humility is closely tied to gratitude and is the appropriate response to contemplating the greatness of God. Regularly meditating on God's immense acts — creating the universe out of nothing, sacrificing himself to save us — is a sure way to appreciate his love and generosity.

Prayer. Happy Catholics use prayer to connect to God and gain distance from worldly preoccupations that can weigh heavily. Develop a prayer routine that helps you "pray constantly." For example, start with a morning offering, recite the Angelus at noon, pray a daily Rosary, perform a brief examination of conscience at night, and sit in silent prayer for at least 15 minutes.

Trust. No one asks for discomfort but we get into trouble when we go out of our way to avoid it. In so doing, we can put ourselves before God and others. Healthy Catholics know that there is no avoiding suffering and it can even be meaningful. Trusting that God loves us dearly and will use our suffering for good makes the suffering easier to bear.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe in the "Real Presence"?

We believe that Jesus is really, truly, and substantially present in the Eucharist because we have it on divine authority. Referring to the Eucharist, Jesus told his disciples, "whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life" (John 6:54). Jesus makes this promise to us every time we receive the Eucharist at Mass. When the priest, acting in the person of Christ, consecrates the bread and wine, Jesus becomes really and truly present, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

Take an antidote for a deadly sin

Some sins are considered especially deadly because they lead to other sins. Fortunately, the “Capital” or “Deadly” sins such as envy, pride and lust have antidotes. For example:

Envy is wanting what someone else has. Heavy doses of gratitude will help. Our peace is restored when we remember that all good gifts come from God and are glad for others’ good fortune and grateful for our own.

Pride is seeking attention and honor that belong to God. Pride makes us focused on ourselves, concerned about how we appear to others. Humility is a counter. Purposely draw attention to others, rather than yourself. Praise and thank God daily for your gifts.

Lust is focusing on sexual self-gratification rather than glorifying God. Sexuality is a gift from God and not inherently impure. Lust, however, is misuse of that gift, straying from God’s intentions for us. Love, willing the good of the other, is at the heart of what it means to be human. Love for God and each other is the antidote.

from Scripture

Luke 24:13-35, Jesus hides in plain sight

Jesus was so close to Cleopas and his companion on the road to Emmaus, he could have tripped them. Yet neither man recognized him. Jesus even gave clues to his identity that he quoted from Scripture. The men were too caught up in the pain and disappointment of the crucifixion. Only when he broke bread with them did they see Jesus for who he was. Then he was gone from their sight.

Both Cleopas and his friend had formed such clear ideas of what they wanted Jesus to be that they failed to see him for who he was. They expected a warrior king and almost missed the universal savior. Aren’t we like that, too? Don’t we have such expectations of what we want God to be that we miss who he really is?

Christ’s presence in our lives isn’t revealed so much by the song of angels as the whisper of a prayer. Taking the time to be alone with God, to read Scripture, and seek him in the people around us will help us uncover Christ’s presence everywhere.

Q & A Why are there religious orders?

Historically, religious orders were founded in response to a need within the Church. Each order receives a special grace from the Holy Spirit, called a charism, which helps to build up the Church. For example, the charism of the Sisters of Life is to protect human life in all its stages.

There are two “kinds” of religious orders: contemplative and active. Members of contemplative orders live apart from the world in closed-off communities. They devote themselves entirely to prayer. Members of the active orders do their work in the world, though there is often a contemplative element to their life as well.

Religious life is “a permanent state of life recognized by the Church, entered freely in response to the call of Christ to perfection...characterized by the profession of...[vows]” (Catechism of the Catholic Church). All religious orders have the mission to spread the Gospel by how they live. They vow to live in poverty, chastity, and obedience so they can dedicate their lives, hearts, and minds completely to God’s service.

Feasts & Celebrations

April 1 – St. Hugh of Grenoble (1132). St. Hugh was the bishop of Grenoble, France, and as bishop, he worked hard to reform his diocese of corruption. St. Hugh was also the friend and patron of St. Bruno, giving him the land where the Grand Chartreuse was built. With his help, St. Bruno founded the Carthusian order.

April 9 – Palm Sunday. The Sunday before Easter is called Palm Sunday and recalls Jesus’ triumphant entry into Jerusalem, when he was greeted by crowds waving palms and cheering, “Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest” (Matthew 21:9). It marks the beginning of Holy Week.

April 24 – St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen (1622). In his native Prussia, St. Fidelis became a lawyer and championed the poor and oppressed. He joined the Franciscans. During the Protestant Reformation, St. Fidelis worked hard to bring people back to the Catholic faith. He was martyred by an angry mob.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

To be brought to the attention of your people in a significant way

March 27, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Pope Francis has asked that parishes throughout the world support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land.

Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

Please be generous as the collection is taken up during the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday.

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

Yours sincerely in Christ,
