2017 PARISH BREAKFAST: Without the support we the parishioners give to our fundraisers, they are bound to fail. Please plan to attend the Parish Breakfast in one weeks' time on Sunday, October 15th. Thank you!

Father Innocent

SATURDAY MASS LOCATION CHANGE: As of Saturday, October 7th, the Saturday Mass at 4:00pm will be celebrated at St. Mary's Church in Pavilion and remain there through March.

BREAKFAST REMINDER: If you are able to, please take a bag of potatoes from the back of St. Mary's church this weekend October 7th and 8th. They can be washed, cubed and boiled for the Breakfast on the October 15th. No potato peeling required. They can be brought to the Pavilion Fire Hall on the morning of the Breakfast. If you cannot get them to the fire hall, please call me and I will pick them up. Thank you!
Lisa Schiske - 585-245-3478

UPCOMING RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DATES:
October 22nd and 29th

COFFEE & DONUTS: There will be coffee & donuts this Sunday, October 8th after 9:30am Mass. All are welcome!!

LADIES OF CHARITY: There will be a Ladies of Charity meeting on Thursday, October 12th at 1:00pm in Conlin Hall. All ladies of the parish are welcome to attend.

BAKED FOOD SALE: The Ladies of Charity will be having their annual Baked Food Sale on Sunday, October 15, 2017 during the Parish Breakfast. Please help by bringing in your delicious baked food items. Our parishioners are always so generous with their baking expertise. Thank you!
Nellie Colvin

COLLECTION REMINDER: If there is a situation where you have to attend weekend mass elsewhere, remember to use your collection envelope for Mary Immaculate Parish. In that way, the parish you attended mass at, will mail it back to us. This is very important because we need every DIME you are able to support the church with. Thank you!

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME: “The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.” Like the work of Jesus, ministry in His church is countercultural. It is rooted not in the world of passing things, but in God’s eternal kingdom. If God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Fr. Andrew Lauricella at 716-847-5535. You can also check out the “Priest of the Month” stories on our website – www.buffalovocations.org.

FAITH MOMENT REFLECTION: In today's gospel, Jesus tells the parable of a king whose invited guests refused to attend a wedding feast he had prepared for his son. Why in the world would they refuse to accept an invitation to a sumptuous banquet? Jesus uses the refusal of the king's invitation as a metaphor for our response to God. We are invited to God's abundant feast to share a special, loving relationship with him. But often we refuse to accept God's invitation to share in his feast and the eternal life he promises. Our refusal weakens our relationship with God and one another. Let's instead accept God's invitation and respond to it with love for one another. We give our relationship with God priority when we donate time, energy and resources to others in need. When we attend Mass and celebrate together. When we share our values and spirituality.

Today's Faith Moment was provided by Christ the King Seminary. You can listen to Faith Moments on WLOF 101.7 FM, WBEN radio 930 AM, or at www.faithmomentsonline.org.

Sunday Stupor...

Miss Gladys was a regular fixture in morning worship at First Church. On this one particular morning the pastor's message went on forever. Someone in the congregation dozed off.

Following the service, she walked up to welcome him. "Hello, I'm Gladys Dunn."

To which the visitor replied, "You're not the only one."

Mary Immaculate Parish
Annual Breakfast
Oct. 15th, 2017

$500 Raffle

Again this year we will be holding the traditional $500 raffle. You may return your tickets and money ahead of time by putting them in the collection basket before the week of the breakfast or bring them to the Breakfast on October 15th. Please don't put them in the collection the weekend of the Breakfast, we don't want any to be missed!

Food Donations

There are sign-up sheets in the back of the churches asking for coffee, strawberry and grape jam, melons, seedless grapes, bananas and canned fruit. Please sign up ahead so we know how much we need to buy. Fresh fruit will need to be delivered to the hall the morning of the breakfast. Other items can be dropped off at church any time before the Breakfast.

Basket Raffle

This year we are asking for donations of NEW items and gift certificates. They will be combined into large baskets that will be raffled off at the breakfast. The tickets for these baskets will be sold at the Breakfast.

Workers

We will need kitchen, dining room, setup (the night before) and clean-up workers. Whatever job suits you, let us know and we will make it happen! Please call or text Lisa at (585) 245-3478

Thank you so much for helping to make our Annual Breakfast a success!

SECOND COLLECTIONS FOR DISASTER RELIEF:

We are all aware of the terrible hardships people are facing because of recent hurricanes and earthquakes and their need for help. Aware in this Year of Mercy of our need to care for each other, Bishop Malone has authorized three special collections for the disaster victims.

The collection for Hurricane Harvey will be:
Saturday and Sunday, October 6th and 7th

The collection for Hurricane Irma will be:
Saturday and Sunday, October 14th and 15th

The collection for Hurricane Maria and Mexican Earthquake will be:
Saturday and Sunday, October 28th and 29th

May we please be touched by the extreme difficulties these people are going through and so give as generously as you can.

REGENERATE(d) 2017: Sponsored by Branches Catholic Ministries, Regenerate(d) 2017 will take place again at the Scotiabank Convention Centre in Niagara Falls, Ontario on Saturday, November 18th. This year's theme is based upon one of the most important questions of our time, "What is Truth?" and how and where do we find it? In a culture that promotes that truth is relative how do we as Catholics respond? Keynote speakers such as Jennifer Fulwiler, Trent Horn, Dr. David Anders and Steve Weidenkopf will address atheism, relativism, the historical divisions in Christianity and how to discuss this with family and friends. For the first time Regenerate(d) Youth 2017 will run concurrently for ages 12 to 18 years. Early bird tickets are available now! To purchase tickets and more information about these conferences visit www.branchesoftheword.org or call Branches at 905-685-7000. If you are in need of financial assistance please contact info@go2branches.com.

YOU DID IT FOR ME: Fatuma Ali Sali is a mother of eight who is facing the worst drought in 50 years in Ethiopia. She is one of nearly half a million people participating in a CRS project to help ride out the drought. The project helps people use new practices and technologies to counter the devastating effects of higher temperatures, prolonged drought and soil erosion.

REQUESTING FOR MASSES: If you would like to request a mass to be said, please contact the church office or use the monthly blue Mass Request envelopes that come with your envelope mailing. When you schedule a Mass, please remember that Masses are not just for praying for the repose of the souls of our departed loved ones. Masses can be said for your needs, or the needs of someone you know, for his or her recovery of health, for wedding anniversaries, birthday blessings, or in thanksgiving to God for favors received. It is one of the most gratifying things to do.

WYOMING ASSOCIATION OF CATHOLIC YOUTH: We invite any youth from your parish in grades 7 to 12 to join us for our first WACY meeting:

Sunday, October 8, 2017
5:00 until 7:30pm
Weber Hall behind St. Cecilia's Church
St. John Neumann Parish.
991 Centerline Road, Strykersville.

Bring a friend all are welcome!
Expect Fun, Faith, and Food!
We can't wait to meet you.

MARRIAGE MOMENT: "Have no anxiety at all, but...make your requests known to God." (Philippians 4:6) We all have anxieties in life - money, health, our kids, safety, etc. My spouse cannot solve all my problems, but sharing our needs in prayer together can lessen the anxiety.

PARENTING PERSPECTIVE: Respect Life Month. As a parent, I assume you speak respectfully to your children and they to you. Respecting life also means valuing all human life - especially the lives of the weak, the vulnerable, the unborn, the poor, even those we disagree with. With political speech becoming less civil, let your children hear you speak respectfully even of those you disagree with.

One Minute Meditations

St. Anthony Mary Claret

The son of a cloth weaver, St. Anthony was born in Spain in 1807. He wanted to become a Jesuit missionary but was prevented by his health. He was ordained a priest in Catalonia and in 1849, he founded the Claretian order. Shortly after, he became the archbishop of Cuba. He established the Religious Publishing House and produced more than 200 works. He was confessor to Queen Isabella II and participated in the First Vatican Council.

God's search for us

Oftentimes it feels like we are searching for God, but he is the one looking for us. God created us, redeemed us, and calls us to follow him. Today, ask God to show you where he's calling you and resolve to follow him.

"Thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure" (Isaiah 25:1).

Begin again

It is an unfortunate part of our human condition that we make mistakes. Fortunately, our loving Father always grants additional chances. In fact, he is delighted when we refresh our sincere attempts to live fully in his love. Here's how to begin again.

Shake off failure. There is nothing more defeating than dwelling on sins or errors of the past. Do what you can to prevent repeating past mistakes, shake it off, and move confidently forward.

Take stock and confess. Rebuild your future on a solid foundation. Perform a detailed examination of conscience and then go to Confession. If necessary, ask your priest for a good examination tool to use. Perform your penance immediately and make amends. Then, knowing that God has forgiven you, forgive yourself. Repeat often.

Make a plan. What would you like to change in your life? Are there steps you can take that will make you holier, happier, healthier? Write them down and commit.

Pray for strength. You may want to make minor tweaks to your life or major change may be in order. Either way, prayer and daily spiritual exercises are key to success. We need God's strength and guidance to succeed.

Begin. Each beginning starts with a new day. Take your first step knowing that God is with you and success is possible.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics sit, stand, and kneel during the Mass?

We adopt different postures throughout the Mass to help us focus, and each posture means something different.

We sit during the homily and the readings to help us listen. We stand during the Gospel, and when the priest enters and leaves, to show him honor and respect when he represents Christ.

Finally, we kneel at the Consecration in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, because Christ, himself, is present. These actions are intended to engage both our bodies and our minds in prayer.

God's will be done

Ever pray really hard for something only to be disappointed in the outcome? The let down feels like God isn't listening. Yet, our way isn't God's way. He always listens to our prayers but doesn't necessarily answer the way we expect. Of course, we know no one is more qualified to lead than our heavenly Father. Doesn't it make sense to trust him?

Don't be outcome specific. Asking God to double your income may not be reasonable. Instead put your worries in his hands. Know that your Father has your best interest in mind and will find the solution that is just right for you.

Be open to alternatives. Sometimes taking a different job or buying a less expensive home is the better choice. You may net more personal time and less overall stress.

Let Scripture speak to you. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, on your own intelligence rely not; In all your ways be mindful of him, and he will make straight your paths" (Proverbs 3:5-6).

from Scripture

Matthew 22:34-40.
Jesus has the right answers.

In their first meeting with Jesus, the Pharisees attempted to trap him into publicly contradicting Jewish law by sending a slick lawyer to "engage" him. Then Jesus could be arrested and silenced. The lawyer they sent knew that generations of Jews had debated fruitlessly about which law was the most important. Pretending to seek Jesus' opinion, he asked him to choose which of the 613 commandments of the Jewish law was the most important.

Jesus silenced them by saying that everything starts and ends with love – love of God and love of others. To love God is to love one another. Love is at the heart of all the other laws.

Even the Pharisees couldn't argue with that.

While it is easy to love God, loving others is more difficult. It means including those our natural inclination says to exclude or avoid. Jesus loved prostitutes, thieves, lepers, even his political enemies. True love of neighbor is measured by how we treat the poor, the vulnerable, and our enemies. This is how God loves and he calls us to the same.

Q & A

What is a "sacramental character?"

Certain Sacraments leave an indelible mark on our souls. Called the "character" or "seal," it marks us as belonging to Christ (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #1272) in a special and permanent way. The Sacramental character is first received in Baptism and is also imprinted in the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Orders. Like Baptism, these Sacraments are only received once.

Each "mark" patterns us after Christ in a different way. In Baptism, we become children of God and sharers in Jesus' mission. In Confirmation, we receive a second character, which strengthens us to proclaim Christ publicly (CCC, #1304). In Holy Orders, a man is consecrated to the service of Christ and the Church.

The Father set his seal on Christ (John 6:27) and we are sealed in Christ (2 Corinthians 1:22). It is a sign that the one baptized, confirmed, and ordained bears a special and unique relationship to Christ. This indelible seal remains even in a person not in the state of grace or who has lost faith.

Feasts & Celebrations

Oct. 23 – St. John of Capistrano (1456). Born in Capistrano, Italy in 1386, St. John studied law at Perugia. He resigned his post as governor to join the Franciscans in 1416. Renowned for his preaching, he was asked to lead the crusade that successfully recaptured Constantinople from the Ottomans and saved Christendom.

Oct. 28 – Saints Simon and Jude (1st Century). St. Simon was a Zealot – a Jew who believed that the Messiah would free them from political oppression. St. Jude was a fisherman. After being called by Jesus to be Apostles, they eventually traveled to Persia where they preached the Gospel until they were martyred.

Oct. 30 – St. Alphonsus Rodriguez (1617). Following the tragic losses of his children and wife, St. Alphonsus entered the Jesuit order as a lay brother and worked as a hall porter at a college on the island of Majorca. Known for holiness and wisdom, many students and civil authorities came to him for advice, including the young St. Peter Claver.
