CEMETERY COLLECTION: This week June 23rd and 24th, we will take up the collection to maintain our St. Mary's Cemetery. The cost to maintain our cemetery has risen. Any extra donation you can make to our Cemetery funds would be deeply appreciated.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES SITES: Services provided by Catholic Charities are in all 8 counties of Western New York. If you need to contact Catholic Charities for any services needed, please see the flyer on the bulletin board at the back of each church.

NEW PHONE NUMBER: St. Mary's rectory phone number has changed. The new number is (585) 252-3091.

OUR GOAL FOR CATHOLIC CHARITIES

2018: Dear Parishioners; a letter from our Bishop, which is also included in this weekend's Bulletin, indicates we have not yet met our Catholic Charities goal of $16,400 for 2018.

May I please remind us that we have NEVER failed to reach our goal with Catholic Charities. I am sure we are not prepared to squash that tradition. So please, if you have not yet donated to Catholic Charities for this year; or you would want to give a little bit more for us to reach our goal, I encourage you to do so as soon as possible. Thank you for the sacrifices you make to support Catholic Charities all these years.

Father Innocent

THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST:

Our Lord calls us to take His yoke upon our shoulders. How do you hear this call for you specifically? If God is calling you to a Church vocation call Fr. Andrew Lauricella at 716-847-5535. You can also check out the "Priest of the Month" stories on our website – www.buffalovocations.org.

MARRIAGE MOMENT: “But they had no child because Elizabeth was barren...” (Luke 1:7) God said to Zechariah, “Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son.” (Luke 1:13) Perhaps you long for a child. Perhaps you already have a child or several. Regardless, ponder how your married love can reflect the love of God by supporting a child who is not your biological child.

PARENTING PERSPECTIVE: Discipline does not mean punishment. The purpose of discipline is to help your child learn to become responsible. Allow your child to experience the consequences of their actions. If a child chooses not to study for a test, she will get a poor grade. If they don't set their alarm, they may miss the school bus. These may seem like hard lessons, but better to learn them when the stakes are low than when your child is older and losing a job or damaging their vehicle might be the consequence.

EMERGENCY CONTACTS: In case of emergency while Father is away, please contact:

MISSION COOPERATIVE COLLECTION: Sr. Ellen Sinclair, SDS will speak on behalf of the Sisters of the Divine Savior also known as Salvatorians, the weekend of July 7 & 8, 2018. We will have a special collection to benefit the congregation, who minister on five continents to improve the quality of life among people of every faith and culture.

Sister Ellen Sinclair, SDS currently serves on the leadership team for the North American Province. While in Tanzania, Sister Ellen shared the joy of young Sisters preparing for vows and parents celebrating newborns at the health center run by Salvatorian Sisters. She witnessed great need: bare shelves in dispensaries, lack of safe drinking water, classrooms without books. That international experience has given her sight into how Salvatorian Sisters respond to similar needs all over the world.

Thank You,

Anne Kirschmann

COFFEE HOUR: There will be a Coffee Hour after 8:00am Mass next Sunday, July 1st at Conlin Hall. All are welcome!!

DAILY MASS CHANGE: There will be no daily Masses from Wednesday, April 25th until further notice; as Father will be in for surgery.

FAITH MOMENT: Who are you named after? Our names underscore our unique identity and often are given to honor a parent, grandparent or relative. In today's reading, Elizabeth and Zechariah name their newborn child according to the instructions of the angel, Gabriel. They broke with tradition, and named the child John, recognizing him as the gift of a gracious God. The naming of John the Baptist reminds us not only that our names have meaning, but also they uniquely identify us as children of God. Like John the Baptist, we are born with a purpose and called to be faithful to God's plan for us. Reflect on the words of the prophet Isaiah: "Thus says the Lord, fear not: I have called you by your name; you are mine." Imagine God calling out your name. What is He asking and how will you answer?

Today's Faith Moment was provided by Christ the King Seminary. You can listen to Faith Moments on WBEN radio 930 AM, WLOF 101.7 FM, or at www.faithmomentsonline.org.

Not To Worry

Seven-year-old Mark was overheard praying, “Lord, if you can't make me a better boy, don't worry about it. I'm having a real good time like I am.”
