A TIME TO COME TO JESUS: Jesus' first work is an invitation, a call to move and respond: "Come." The mistake, when things go wrong, is to stay where we are. It seems obvious, but how difficult it is to respond and open ourselves. In dark times it feels natural to keep to ourselves, to ruminate over how unfair life is, over how ungrateful others are, how mean the world is, and so on. We have had this awful experience a few times. But in this way, locked up inside ourselves we see everything as grim. Then we even grow accustomed to sadness which overcomes us and is a terrible thing. Jesus, however, wants to pull us out of this "quicksand" and thus says to each one: "Come!" The way out is in connecting, in extending a hand and lifting our gaze to those who truly love us. In fact it is not enough to come out of ourselves. It is important to know where to go. Because many aims are illusory, promising comfort and distraction, they guarantee peace and offer amusement, then leave us with the loneliness there was before. Therefore Jesus indicates where to go: "Come to me."

Spiritual Reflections by Pope Francis

FAITH MOMENT: In today's Gospel we hear Jesus say twice to His disciples, "Peace be with you." What he was offering was complete peace – a real wholeness and well-being for their lives. His message still has powerful meaning today. Rabbinic literature at the time of Christ extolled peace as the greatest possible blessing. In fact, one of the most renowned sages of that time, Rabbi Hillel, defined peace as the heart of Judaism, instructing people to, "Love peace...and pursue it." To bring about this peace, Jesus took action. After saying, "Peace be with you," Jesus tells the disciples, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." He is telling them to go forth and help those in need so that others may experience peace too. The disciples went on to follow his direction: healing and caring for others...and bringing peace...just as Jesus did. How might we be agents of peace in our time?

Today's Faith Moment was provided by Christ the King Seminary. You can listen to Faith Moments on WBEN radio 930 AM, WLOF 101.7 FM, or at www.faithmomentsonline.org.

MISSION COOPERATIVE PLAN: Next weekend, Maryknoll's Eastern Director of the Church Engagement Department, Deacon Paul Bork, will speak at all the Masses. Paul has traveled to Maryknoll missions across the globe from CHINA to HONG KONG, MEXICO, and JAMAICA.

While at the Parish, Deacon Paul will be happy to talk with any parishioners who are interested in doing overseas mission work as a Maryknoll Priest, sister, Brother or lay Missioner. The Mission Cooperative collection will be held June 22nd and June 23rd this year.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSION APPEAL: The second collection this weekend, April 27th and 28th will be for the Catholic Home Mission Appeal. This appeal supports the dioceses here in our own country that struggle to make ends meet and serve all of the needs of their parishioners. It is through our generosity that many churches are able to keep their doors open and provide essential pastoral services. Our gifts provide liturgical and educational supplies, assisting priests to offer the Eucharist and other sacraments. Our generosity brings Christ's message of love, compassion and reconciliation. Please be as generous as you can.

WHAT HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED? Last year's Pontifical Good Friday Collection:

- Supported 29 parishes, four homes for orphans, three academic institutions
- Helped keep schools open for over 10,000 pre-K through grade 12 students
- Supported 120 men preparing to be priests or brothers
- Helped rehabilitate 80 homes for Christian families
- Provided senior care facilities in Bethlehem and Nazareth
- Created 1,500 jobs in the Holy Land for Christians
- Preserved 54 shrines connected with the life of Jesus and the prophets

Church Humour

Delivering a speech at a banquet on the night of his arrival in a large city, a visiting minister told several anecdotes that he expected to repeat at meetings the next day.

Because he wanted to use the jokes again, he requested the reporters to omit them from any accounts they might turn in to their newspapers.

One local reporter, in commenting on the speech, ended his piece with the following: "The minister told a number of stories that cannot be published."
