Reflection:

Christ the King
Matthew 25:31-46
Inherit the kingdom (Mat.25:34)

Today, on the feast of Christ the King, we celebrate Jesus' sovereignty over all creation. We celebrate the fact that all things were created through him, all things are redeemed through him and all people will be judged by him.

It is this last point – Jesus as judge – that today's Gospel focuses on. It tells us that as our King, Jesus has the right to set the standard by which we will be judged. Other judges exercise their office based on the existing laws of the land. But Jesus is the law of the kingdom. His life, his way, is the standard by which we will be judged.

If you want to be judge in this world, you have to know the law intimately. Just one word in one statute can affect the entire outcome of a case. Not so with Jesus. His law is simple. We will “inherit the kingdom” based on this guiding principle. “Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.” (Mat.25:34,40). That is the standard, mercy, generosity, and self-giving love.

It is often said that you can not take it with you, and there is a lot of truth to that. All our money, all our honors, all our possessions are temporary. They will not follow us to heaven, and they cannot help us get in. But there is something we can take with us, our acts of charity. In fact, they are very things that will open the gates of heaven to us!

Jesus will not be impressed if we have many possessions, and he will not be disappointed if we have just a few. What matters is whether we have let him soften our hearts so that we feed the hungry, forgive those who have sinned against us, and reach out to the lonely. Because his kingdom is not a kingdom of wealth and power: it is a kingdom of humility, love, and service.

“Jesus, my King and my judge, teach me to love as you love.”

Fr. Alphonse Arulanandu

“You did it for me”

Whatever you do, even if you help somebody cross the road, you do it to Jesus. Even giving somebody a glass of water, you do it to Jesus (Mat.25:35). Such a simple little teaching, but it is more and more important. We must not be afraid to proclaim Christ's love and to love as He loved. In the work we have to do it does not matter how small and humble it may be, make it Christ's love in action.

However beautiful the work is, be detached from it, even ready to give it up. The work is not yours. The talents God has given you are not yours; they have been given to you for your use, for the glory of God. Be great and use everything in you for the good Master.

What have we to learn? To be meek and humble (Mt.11:29); if we are meek and humble, we will learn to pray. If we learn to pray, we will belong to Jesus. If we belong to Jesus, we will learn to believe, and if we believe we will learn to love, and if we love we will learn to serve.

Saint Teresa of Calcutta.

Wish you all
“Happy Thanksgiving”
God Bless You!
Be Safe

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS: If you are interested in becoming a Council member and to help out your parish, please contact Father Alphonse or any Council member. If you have never been to a meeting, we invite you to join us at our next meeting on Thursday, November 19th, 7pm. We need your participation to make our parish alive and growing. Please do not think someone else will step up ... we need YOU!

COUNTER & LECTOR NEEDED: We are in need of a volunteer to assist in counting the collection and another volunteer for Lector at our Immaculate Conception location. The counter is needed for one week per month and an additional week one time during the year. If you can assist us with either need, please let the office know. Your parish is in need of your help. Please volunteer.

RELIGION EDUCATION NEWS: Grades 2nd and 3rd will meet on November 22nd from 10:45 till 12:15pm for 1st Reconciliation and Holy Communion Preparation.

LOTTERY BASKET: This was a fundraiser that was started at the March 15th Chicken BBQ and was supposed to end at the annual breakfast. Plans changed due to the recent events. We will be selling tickets after each mass starting November 1st and finishing on November 22nd. Winning tickets will be pulled after the 9am Thanksgiving Mass. This is a great opportunity for some possible extra Christmas money!

FOR YOUR INFORMATION: Those who do not wish to attend mass on Sunday may attend a mass of their choice during the week and it will count as their weekly obligation. This will only be accepted during the coronavirus pandemic.

COMMUNION CHALICES: Immaculate Conception Site is in need of a new communion set. We are currently using a mismatched crystal set. We are required to use metal communion cups. Any donation received would be greatly appreciated to offset the cost. Please mark your envelope "Chalice Fund." Thank you to those who have already donated.

Almighty every living God, have mercy on us and heal us from this deadly virus COVID -19.

VOLUNTEER NEEDED: Our parishioners who are still unable to join us for weekend masses have shown much interest in seeing the mass livestreamed. A volunteer is needed to livestream the Saturday mass at St. Mary's Church. If you are interested in helping out and have the know how to do this please call the office to lend a hand. We could use your help!

GIVING TREE: Some people are not able to come to church but still want to participate in this program of giving specific gifts to children of families who need help this year. If you would like a card from the Giving Tree, call Chris Bow 576-3576, or Mary Eisenhard 409-4839. If you cannot shop but want to donate money, send a check to Mary Immaculate with GIVING TREE written on the check and we will pull cards and make purchases for you.

THANK YOU: Mary Immaculate Parish would like to express words of thanks and appreciation to John & Sylvia Callari, Tim Sexton and Chuck Bishop for excellently redoing the ramp at St. Mary's, Pavilion. A word of thanks to Lisa Schiske for providing lunch. Thank you so much and God bless you all.

Actual Announcements from Church Bulletins
