Communion Ministers and Altar Servers are asked to volunteer their services at the Mass they attend.

DAILY MASS: There will be no daily mass next week as Father will be out of town.

COFFEE HOUR: will be after the 8 am Mass in Colin Hall next Sunday. All are welcome!!

OUR FINAL CHICKEN BBQ: Our final Chicken BBQ for 2015 is Sunday, May 17. As usual, we are looking for volunteers to assist in the preparation of and on the day of our barbeque. If you would be willing to give us an hour or more of your time, please stop by!

We need help on:

Wednesday, May 13 5 pm - washing of potatoes & Setting up

Saturday, May 16 Noon - greasing of potatoes & Completing setting up

Additionally, we could use extra help in the pie room and in the dining room. Even one hour of your time would be greatly appreciated! Do not assume others will be there. We need YOU!

Reminder to our bakers, we will need your wonderful pies and cakes for our dessert table!! These can be dropped off on Saturday between 9 am and noon, left in the breezeway between the garage and rectory, or dropped off before 10 am on Sunday.

RAFFLE TICKETS: All of the annual BBQ Raffle tickets have been distributed. Those that were not picked up in person were mailed last week. Please return your raffle tickets and money before May 12. Drawing for the raffle will be at our last Chicken BBQ on May 17.

UPCOMING RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DATES:

May 10

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION VOLUNTEERS: The religious education program is in need of volunteers to be on the substitute teacher list. If you are interested, please contact the church office.

CONFIRMATION PRACTICE: There will be Confirmation practice at St. Peter's Church, 44 Lake Street, LeRoy, on Saturday, May 16th at 11:00am. This practice will be for Confirmation students and their Sponsors. Confirmation will be on Sunday, May 17th at 5:30pm. Please mark your calendars.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL CHICKEN BBQ!!

I wish to thank all who helped to make our second Chicken BBQ of the year a huge success!! Thankfully, we had a sell-out!! This, of course, could not have happened without our hard working and dedicated volunteers!!

Special thanks to Bob & Kathy Shepard who have sweated it out over the years to keep this wonderful tradition going. All the work they do weeks and months before every BBQ and getting up at the crack of dawn to pick up the chickens at 5:30 am and getting the BBQ underway, we say Thank you the Shepard's!

How can I forget to appreciate the MANY parishioners who helped in any way; whether it be help with set up, working in the kitchen, dining room, the dish room, the pits, the counters, or working at the entrance tables; everyone's effort came together to give us that wonderful success. Many hands really make the work light. You certainly proved that right at our last BBQ.

DANIEL OGBEIFUN'S ORDINATION: Our beloved Daniel is about to complete his journey from seminarian to priesthood on June 6 at St. Joseph's Cathedral in Buffalo. This Mass will take place at 10:00am with a reception following at St. Aloysius Gonzaga Parish. If you plan to attend this reception, please RSVP by May 12, to 716-548-5212. Details concerning transportation to this event will be posted in upcoming bulletins.

We will be hosting our own parish celebration for Daniel. His family will be staying with us the weekend of the celebration at Immaculate Conception Rectory. Saturday Evening Mass on the 13th of June will switch to St. Mary's for that weekend only; followed by the reception in Conlin Hall.

If you have not yet given your donation in support of Deacon Daniel's Ordination and reception, this is your time to do so. Thank you!

Fr. Innocent

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR NEPAL RELIEF:

Bishop Malone has requested a special Diocesan collection next weekend (May 9-10) to help Catholic Relief Services in sending materials for emergency shelter and for safe water, sanitation and hygiene as these are expected to be the most urgent needs for the victims of the earthquake in Nepal. Please be generous.

CONLIN HALL: The cupboards of St. Mary's Conlin Hall have been cleaned and re-organized. Several baking dishes that do not belong to the church have been placed on the entrance pew of the church. Please take any dish that may be yours. Anything that is not removed by May 17th will be donated. Thank you for all your generosity on so many occasions.

A LIVING ROSARY: On May 10, following the 9:30 mass in East Bethany, our church school students will be a part of a living rosary. All will gather in the church and recite the rosary together, immediately following will be coffee and donuts at the Church Hall.

SAVE THE DATES: Confirmation will be Sunday, May 17th at Our Lady of Mercy Church in LeRoy at 5:30pm. First Holy Communion is on Sunday June 7th at 9:30 at Immaculate Conception. All are welcome to attend.

DIRECTORY PHOTOS: Because so many of you have signed up for our directory photos, and there was still interested families, we were able to add one more date for our directory! Thursday, June 4th will be our last photo session. If you are interested in having your photos taken, please contact the church office.

DID YOU KNOW? The earliest members of St. Mary's parish were Irish immigrants who were escaping the trials of the Potato Famine in Ireland. Many settled in the area because they were assured work at the Brooks farm. It was said that if an Irishman's ticket to the US said: "Brooks Castile", he would end up in Pearl Creek, NY. Although the family's religion was Presbyterian, Major Brooks opened their home, allowing twelve to fifteen immigrants and a priest to celebrate Mass. This is recorded to be the roots of our parish circa 1850's.

LADIES OF CHARITY BANQUET: The Ladies of Charity Annual May Banquet will be held on Friday, May 8th, 1:00pm at the Wyoming Inn on Route 19, Wyoming (by the old bank and post office). Meals are from the menu with the tip and tax to be paid by the Ladies of Charity. All ladies of our parish are invited to attend. Please sign up at the entrance of the churches by Sunday, May 3rd. If you have any questions, please call Pat Tiede at 585-584-3259.

CATHOLIC HOMESCHOOL CONFERENCE:

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Buffalo Homeschool Conference will be held at the Millennium Hotel Buffalo, 2040 Walden Avenue, Cheektowaga, on Thursday, June 4 from 12:00pm - 6:00pm. Confirmed speakers include: Mrs. Colleen Hammond, Mr. Nick Marmalejo, Mrs. Amy Kalscheur, and Mrs. Dorothy Pilarski. Admission is free and pre-registration is not required. For more information, please visit www.ihmconference.org, or email: info@ihmconference.org or call 540-636-1946.

INVITING YOUTH TO LEADERSHIP AND

MINISTRY: There is a great need to empower young people with a vision of church, a sense of ministry and an affirmation of their gifts. There is a need to equip young people with the skills and knowledge they need to be effective leaders in our revitalized church. Teenagers have tremendous gifts and energy to offer in service to our parishes, but in order to tap into those resources we must personally invite them, affirm them, and train them. The Christian Leadership Institute (CLI) presents you with an opportunity to do this. CLI prepares high school aged teens for active and meaningful leadership in their parish, school, and community. Please invite and sponsor teens with leadership potential to experience this faith-based institute. CLI will be held from June 26-July 2 at the St. Columban Center in Derby. Brochures and scholarships are available from the Department of Youth & Young Adult Ministry at 716-847-8789 or visit <http://www.dobyouth.org>

MARRIAGE MOMENT: Praying together as a couple can be a deep and perhaps awkward form of intimacy. It takes great trust to pour out your heart to God in the presence of your spouse. A first step may be praying for each other even if not in one another's presence. A second step may be silent meditation in each other's presence. Take a step this week.

PARENTING PERSPECTIVE: Parental words that sustain and heal: "It's normal." "I'm proud of you." "You did a good job." Look for an opportunity to say something like this today.

YOU DID IT FOR ME: Sean was down to his last bit of savings and staring at an eviction notice. A car accident had cost him his mobility and his job, and he was interviewing for a new position that didn't start until the following month. A friend told him to apply for emergency assistance through Catholic Charities, which allowed him to keep his home and stabilize his finances.

Last year, over 185,000 people in need received temporary financial assistance to make ends meet from a local Catholic Charities agency. To learn more, please visit www.CatholicCharitiesUSA.org

JOURNEY INTO LOVE: The Office of Family Life Ministries is looking for married couples to assist with the monthly diocesan marriage preparation program, Journey into Love. Married couples help by giving a 20 minute talk once or twice a year on essential topics and issues that engaged and newly married couples face. Married couples that support this ministry find it beneficial to their own marriage and their efforts contribute to the strengthening of family life as couples prepare for their marriage. If you are interested in finding out more about this very successful diocesan marriage program, call the Family Life Office at 716-847-2210.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER: Our second Scripture reading reminds us that we are to love, not in word and speech only, but in truth and action. If you feel God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Father Walter Szczesny ~ 716-847-5535. You can also check out the "Priest of the Month" stories on our website ~ www.buffalovocations.org!

FAITH MOMENT REFLECTION: A group of campers was lost in the woods. One said, "follow me; home is this way." Another said, "No, it's this way." Still another pointed in a different direction. Finally, one camper produced a compass and was able to guide them on the right path. In today's second reading from the First Letter of John, we are urged to use God's commandments as our moral compass to guide us in cooperating with one another and finding our way in life. John is telling us we can have confidence in God to lead us when we meditate on his word and keep his commandments. And when we do – when our words and our actions mirror our beliefs – we are acting with integrity and are a reflection of God to others. What do you use as your compass? Give that some thought as you go about your day.

Today's Faith Moment was provided by Christ the King Seminary. You can listen to Faith Moments on WLOF 101.7FM, WBEN radio 930AM, or at www.faithmomentsonline.org.

The Reverend Billy Graham tells of a time early in his ministry when he arrived in a small town to preach a revival meeting. Wanting to mail a letter he asked a young boy where the post office was. When the boy had told him, Dr. Graham thanked him and said, "If you'll come to the church this evening, you can hear me give directions on how to get to heaven."

I don't think I'll be there," the boy replied. "You don't even know how to get to the post office."

One Minute Meditations

St. Joseph the Worker

Our primary responsibility is to fulfill our daily obligations.

Yet, St. Joseph demonstrated that work can lead to holiness if our efforts are for God.

St. Joseph was not rich. He and Mary made a modest Temple offering when Jesus was born. As a carpenter he had to work hard to support his family. Yet, he offered all he was to raise God's son and protect him from harm. St. Joseph made everyday life holy.

Upward glance

Try spending part of each day alone with God. Human conversation keeps you grounded on Earth. Moments spent with God are moments glancing toward the Heaven that awaits.

"When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son!' Then he said to the disciple, 'Behold, your mother!' And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home" (John 19:26-26).

Whom do you want to please?

It is human nature to want the good opinion of other people. Toddlers and children seek parents' approval as a measure of their growth. Teens want approval from peers, coaches, teachers, colleges. As adults, though, it's important to shake off the habit of trying to please or impress others when God's opinion is what matters in the end. "Am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I trying to please men?" (Galatians 1:10).

Whose standard is it anyway? Others tend to judge you from their own perspectives, their own interests, and through their own filters. People see only your actions. God sees your heart.

Don't defend yourself. Make consistently good choices and you won't have to defend or explain. Regularly read Scripture to remember how to please God. Follow the Commandments and the Beatitudes. If people legitimately criticize you, gratefully receive their feedback. Reject the backbiters.

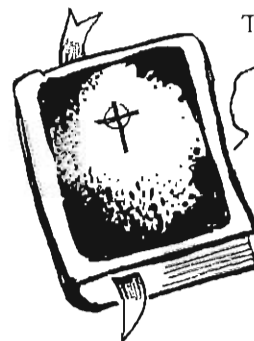

Be your own master. Don't let an employer, a friend, or a relative gain too strong of a hold on you. Make your own decisions and choices without pressure. Otherwise you will find yourself suspending your better judgment in favor of theirs.

Stay who you are. Don't try to appear better than those around you or to hide the real you. God loves you just as you are.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

The Church calls Sacred Scripture "sacred" because it is divinely inspired by God, and credits him as its author. "All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness" (2 Timothy 3:16).

Why do we believe Scripture is Sacred?

The Scriptures describe how God revealed himself to man along with his saving plan. Every event and every prophecy recorded in the Old Testament points to and is fulfilled in the New Testament in the person of Jesus.

Where is God when you need him?

God can be found one hundred times every day if we look for him. "So it was you all along. Everyone I ever loved, it was you. Everything decent or fine that ever happened to me, everything that made me reach out and try to be better, it was you" C.S. Lewis.

When you need encouragement, God sends you a kind glance or a friendly word. Look for his face in the person who gives it.

God surrounds us with beauty to help us think of him and remind us of his love for us.

Don't miss the chance to appreciate a lovely garden or a mighty tree.

When you are anxious or lonely, God comes to you in the sympathetic friend who listens, or the stranger who smiles at you.

When we are on unfamiliar ground, God sends us a colleague to make us feel comfortable at work or a neighbor to help us feel more at home.

Where is God when you need him? He is everywhere you are.

Matthew 28:16-20; Jesus gives disciples their charge

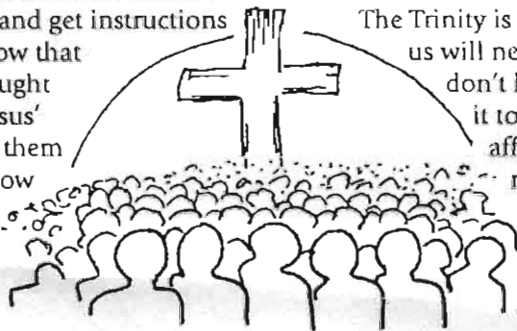

When Jesus appeared to the Eleven on the mountain top in Galilee, it was so the crowd with them could witness his Resurrection and get instructions for next steps. Now that they had been taught and witnessed Jesus' glory, he wanted them to teach others how to live as God's children.

As his followers today, that's our mission, too.

Jesus gave his listeners three commands: Go, make disciples of all nations, and baptize them. Baptism signifies a renewed relationship with the Father, as revealed through the Son, to be filled with the Holy Spirit – in other words, the Holy Trinity.

The Trinity is a mystery most of us will never understand. We don't have to understand it to believe it. And we affirm it each time we make the Sign of the Cross and say the words Jesus said, "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." We are also reminded that the Cross of Jesus is the only means by which we can follow Christ into the eternal life of the Trinity.

Feasts & Celebrations

In May we celebrate mothers and the mother of all, the Blessed Virgin Mary. We can honor her by praying the Rosary and observing her feast days.

May 14 – Ascension of the Lord. This Holy Day of Obligation marks the completion of Jesus' mission of salvation and his triumphant entry into Heaven by his own power. Note: In some dioceses, observance has been moved to the following Sunday.

May 21 – St. Christopher Magallanes (1937). Ft. Christopher Magallanes was part of the Catholic Acción Movement in Mexico, resisting the anti-Catholic Mexican government. Despite great persecution, he established a seminary at Totatiche. Eventually, he was arrested, tortured, and martyred.

May 25 – Pope St. Gregory VII (1085). During dark days for the Church, Pope Gregory worked to eliminate simony (the buying and selling of sacred offices), unlawful marriages of the clergy, and lay investiture (kings and nobles appointing Church officials). St. Gregory fought attacks on the authority of the Church. For this he suffered and died in exile.

Q & A Why do Catholic churches display crucifixes?

Many Christian churches display simple crosses or other peaceful symbols of their faith. Non-Catholics wonder why we choose instead the crucifix, which can be a disturbing image.

The crucifix is not just part of our Catholic identity. The Catholic Church requires that a crucifix be visible during the celebration of Mass to remind us of the sacrifice of Jesus on the altar of the Cross, which is made present for us each time we celebrate the Holy Eucharist. It is a powerful representation of the body and blood Jesus shed for us.

To Catholics, the crucifix is a symbol of the ultimate act of love. A cross recalls the Resurrection and Jesus' triumph over death. That is important to us, too. But to fully understand our own redemption, we need to be reminded of what Jesus had to endure, namely his Passion and death, before the Resurrection. We are also reminded that God gave his only Son for our salvation. The Crucifix is a full image of our redemption.
