WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES: The world's largest Catholic gathering of families, will be held in Philadelphia from September 22-27. This event is held every 3 years and is sponsored by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for the Family. The theme for this gathering, "Love is Our Mission: The Family Fully Alive," emphasizing the impact of love and life of families on our society. Families and individuals from the Diocese of Buffalo interested in attending this event are encouraged to contact St. Gemma's Catholic Pilgrimages in Buffalo, toll free at 855-710-7663, visit www.takeapilgrimage.com or e-mail rome@takeapilgrimage.com. Pope Francis will attend the closing ceremonies.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION: Next weekend, July 25th & 26th, the second collection will be for Peter's Pence Collection. Profess Faith, Bestow Love, Impart Hope! The collection's theme is "Be a Witness of Charity" and focuses on the need to show Christ's love to others. SUMMERTIME WITH JESUS AND YOUR FAMILY: Your 2015 free Summer Spirituality Tool Box of Ideas is filled with practical ways to make summertime a sacred time. It is a perfect companion for your family throughout the summer months, whether vacationing or being at home. Celebrate the glory of all God's creation! MARRIAGE MOMENT: "Jesus...sent them out two by two." (Mark 6:7) Although this scripture refers to the 12 apostles, as a married couple you two are sent to bring good news to the people around you. Who can you lift up today?

PARENTING PERSPECTIVE: As your children mature and become emerging adults, the way you share your faith must mature also. Share your faith struggles, not just your certainty. Their questions may deepen your faith. That is good.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: In today's gospel "the apostles gathered around and told Jesus all they had done." Listening allows the other person to express, understand and appreciate their experiences. Whether it is the excited chatter of young child or the repetitious stories of an aging grandparent, listening is important. It is not just time well spent, it is sacred time.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: When the apostles were trying to reflect on their ministry, Jesus asked them to "Come by yourselves to an out-of-the-way place." Listening to God in quiet prayer is very important in vocation discernment. Listen to God's voice in an out-of-the-way place. If you feel the call is genuine, call Father Walter Szczesny ~ 716-847-5535. YOU DID IT FOR ME: The residents of the Lawa neighborhood in the Philippines live in a lowland area. Every few years families have to raise their bamboo homes to accommodate constantly rising sea levels. Through Catholic Relief Services' SUCCESS project, Lawa officials and the Diocese of Malolos work together to improve living conditions before they become critical problems in an event of a natural disaster.

FAITH MOMENT REFLECTION: The poet Edna St. Vincent Millay wrote: "My candle burns at both ends; it will not last the night." So many of us burn the candle at both ends that our lives lose balance. We work too much. We try to keep the perfect household. In between, there is too little time for family and friends—and for God. The good news is that balance in life is within our grasp. In this week's gospel, after hearing how hard they had been working, Jesus invited his apostles to "come away by yourselves and rest a while." Note that even doing God's work can be exhausting. Achieving balance starts with recognizing God as the center of our lives. Just as we need time for rest and relaxation, we must also make time for prayer and reflection. When we do so, our faith will help restore balance and support us through all of life's challenges.

Today's Faith Moment was provided by Christ the King Seminary. You can listen to Faith Moments on WLOF 101.7 FM, WBEN radio 930 AM, or at www.faithmomentsonline.org.

CARE FOR CREATION: Pope Francis began his encyclical, Praise be to you, my Lord: On Care for our Common Home, with the reminder that "St. Francis of Assisi reminds us that our common home is like a sister with who we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us." (1) "St. Francis was a mystic and a pilgrim who lived in simplicity and in wonderful harmony with God, with others, with nature and with himself. He shows us just how inseparable the bond is between concern for nature, justice for the poor, commitment to society, and interior peace." (10) Action: take time during this summer to enjoy nature and learn God's creativity and love from this wondrous gift God has given us. Oh Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favor I confidently ask of you.
(Then say three Hail Marys).

In this novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help (also known as Our Mother of Perpetual Help from this icon pictured above) we pay tribute to the Blessed Virgin Mary in asking for her assistance. This picture of the Blessed Mother with her Divine Son above has helped her provide strength, comfort and even miracles to the faithful for centuries!

First placed in the Church of San Matteo in Rome in 1499, the picture was thought to be lost at one point after Napoleon's armies sacked that church in 1798. Fortunately, however, it was in the care of the Augustinian fathers until Pope Pius IX ordered that the icon be given to the Redemptorist order at the Church of St. Alphonsus in Rome in 1866 for public viewing once again. Since then it has been copied and venerated in churches and homes all over the world.

Note in this picture how Jesus, while safely cradled in his mother's arms, looks anxiously at St. Gabriel the Archangel, who holds the cross and nails for His Crucifixion. (St. Michael the Archangel, at left, holds the lance, spear, and the vessel of vinegar and gall for our Lord's Passion as well.) The Blessed Mother looks at us solemnly, perhaps as if in contemplation of her beloved Son's future Passion and death for our salvation!

Remember that when we pray this novena to our Lady of Perpetual Help that we are not choosing to worship her over her Divine Son. She is "our Mother on the order of grace," according to a Vatican II document, and all the graces Mary gives us come directly from our Lord. She is always ready to intercede with Him on our behalf, but never for anything contrary to His wishes.

As long as we approach her as we do Him, with sincerely humble and contrite hearts, we can count on her aid and guidance. Mary's last spoken words in the Gospels concerned her Son when she said at the wedding feast at Cana "Do whatever he tells You" (John 2:5). If we persevere in our intentions to do Christ's will for us, we are doing hers as well.
