This worldwide collection supports needs of the Church and humanitarian activities by caring for victims of war, oppression, religious persecution and natural disasters. Donations to the collection will also assist seminaries and institutes of Christian formation in developing countries. Please give as generously as you can.

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES: The world's largest Catholic gathering of families, will be held in Philadelphia from September 22-27. This event is held every 3 years and is sponsored by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for the Family. The theme for this gathering, "Love is Our Mission: The Family Fully Alive," emphasizing the impact of love and life of families on our society. Families and individuals from the Diocese of Buffalo interested in attending this event are encouraged to contact St. Gemma's Catholic Pilgrimages in Buffalo, toll free at 855-710-7663, visit www.takeapilgrimage.com or e-mail rome@takeapilgrimage.com. SUMMERTIME WITH JESUS AND YOUR FAMILY: Your 2015 free Summer Spirituality Tool Box of Ideas is filled with practical ways to make summertime a sacred time. It is a perfect companion for your family throughout the summer months, whether vacationing or being at home. Celebrate the glory of all God's creation! For your free 2015 Tool Box, contact the Office of Family Life Ministries at 716-847-2210 or email familylife@buffalodiocese.org

MARRIAGE MOMENT: Complaining can be a release for negative emotions, but it can wear down the listener - usually your spouse. Can you go one day without complaining? Let your beloved check you and hold you accountable.

PARENTING PERSPECTIVE: July 26 is Parent's Day. We don't need another card or gift giving holiday, but honoring the effort that parents make in raising children is important. Don't buy anything today, but ask your children what they think is the hardest part about being a parent? Listen.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: In today's gospel Phillip worried about "enough food" for the crowd. What is ENOUGH? When does our ENOUGH deprive another family of their fair share? Jesus performed today's miracle because one child was willing to share and risk living with less. Can your family live more simply so that other families can simply live?

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: In the Gospel many people hunger for a small amount of food. In our day there are too many people for the small number of priests, sisters, brothers and deacons. We, too, must trust in the Lord by praying for vocations and responding if we feel God is calling us to a Church vocation. If you feel God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Father Walter Szczesny ~ 716-847-5535. You can also check out the "priest of the Month" stories on our website ~ www.buffalovocations.org!

YOU DID IT FOR ME: Charles* wanted to work full-time, but needed a job that would accommodate his visual impairment. His persistence paid off when he was offered what seemed to be the perfect job--except it was four blocks from the nearest bus route, making it nearly impossible for Charles to get there safely. Thankfully, a transportation program run by his local Catholic Charities agency enabled him to accept the job and make strides towards self-sufficiency.

Last year, over 9 million individuals in need received assistance from Catholic Charities agencies, ranging from food to transportation to resume classes. To learn more, please visit www.CatholicCharitiesUSA.org

FAITH MOMENT REFLECTION: We live in a society of excess and over-abundance. Super-sized meals. Oversized luxuries. The latest and largest gadgets. In our pursuit of having enough of the biggest and the best we may lose sight of true and lasting abundance – the lavish love and life-giving presence of our gracious God. Today's readings remind us of this true treasure of abundance found in our relationship with God. Signs of God's abundance surround us, in the beauty of creation, in the love we share with family and friends, and with our vibrant faith communities. The precious and abundant gift of God's love is to be treasured and shared freely with others in a spirit of gratitude and knowing. God provides all that we need each day.

Today's Faith Moment was provided by Christ the King Seminary. You can listen to Faith Moments on WLOF 101.7 FM, WBEN radio 930 AM, or at www.faithmomentsonline.org.

God Never Forgets Us...

God treats us as children; he understands us, he forgives us, he embraces us, he loves us even when we err. In the Old Testament, the prophet Isaiah was already affirming that even if a mother could forget her child, God never forgets us at any moment (cf. 49:15). And this is beautiful!

*~ Pope Francis Speaks to our hearts –
Words of Challenge and Hope*

CARE FOR CREATION: Pope Francis began his encyclical, Praise be to you, my Lord: On Care for our Common Home, with the reminder that "St. Francis of Assisi reminds us that our common home is like a sister with who we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us." (1) "St. Francis was a mystic and a pilgrim who lived in simplicity and in wonderful harmony with God, with others, with nature and with himself. He shows us just how inseparable the bond is between concern for nature, justice for the poor, commitment to society, and interior peace." (10) Action: take time during this summer to enjoy nature and learn God's creativity and love from this wondrous gift God has given us. To learn more, go to www.franciscanaction.org

A kindergarten teacher was walking around observing her classroom of children while they were drawing pictures. As she got to one girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was.

The girl replied, "I'm drawing God."

The teacher paused and said,

"But no one knows what God looks like."

*Without looking up from her drawing, the girl replied,
"They will in a minute."*

SPEAK OF MY MERCY: Branches Catholic Ministries will be sponsoring a fall conference on October 3-4, 2015 at the Scotiabank Convention Centre in Niagara Falls, Canada. Regenerate(d) 2015 will feature dynamic talks from renowned Catholic speakers. The conference will begin with an address by Most Rev. Gerard Bergie, Bishop of St. Catharines and this year's main celebrant and homilist. Pope Francis has called for an Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy with the holy year to begin on December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. In preparation for this holy year, we invite you to attend Regenerate(d) which will speak to the intentions of our Holy Father to find a way for the church to "make more evident its mission to be a witness of mercy." The theme of this year's conference is Confession: The Sacrament of Divine Mercy. Early Bird Registration and Group Discounts available. www.go2branches.com or call Branches at 289-362-1417, or email info@go2branches.com. We come to be healed. We come to be educated. We come to be regenerated. More information is on the bulletin tables of each church.

Fireworks...

The annual Fourth of July picnic and fireworks sponsored by First Baptist is one of the highlights of the church year. Last year's pyrotechnic show will not be forgotten by all those standing around Donnie Walker on his father's shoulders. When the last ball of fire streaked across the sky and the audience was cheering, little Donnie kept looking up into the sky and saying, "Thank you, God."

Life without Jesus is like an unsharpened pencil.
It has no point.
