MY SINCERE THANKS: Last year 2014, I requested that we give our 150th Anniversary the best show we can. Thank you my beloved parishioners for making that happen last Sunday.

With all my heart I thank the Anniversary Committee for pulling through a most wonderful celebration.

The Church was packed; the Bishop was down-to-earth and funny; Conlin Hall and the Picnic grounds were full; there were lots of different dishes to choose from; the beef was awesomely yummy! Everybody had a good time!

Thank you ALL a million times! It was simply fantastic!

Father Innocent

SPECIAL THANKS: Our special thanks to Bob Collette for his expertise, and many hours of time and talent to make our 150th Anniversary DVD possible. What a special keepsake to be shared over the years! Our deepest appreciation to Bob for making it happen. Also, our thanks to Hannah Cline for her participation in our celebration by selling the DVD's to our wonderful parishioners. Your donation has helped her raise money for her pilgrimage to Poland next July.

The 150th Anniversary Committee

A NOTE OF THANKS...I wanted to thank all of the Mary Immaculate Parishioners immensely for your generosity towards me and my fundraising efforts for my World Youth Day trip in 2016. In purchasing the DVD's of our 150th Anniversary celebration, you have helped me to raise $220.00 of my $2,500 goal. Be sure to keep watch in future bulletins for more information on upcoming fundraisers and more World Youth Day 2016 Information. God's blessings to you!

Hannah Cline, your Polish Pilgrim

PAPAL VISIT: The Office of Communications is compiling a contact list of Catholics from the Diocese of Buffalo who will be traveling to Washington, D.C., New York City and Philadelphia (September 22-27) for the pastoral visit to the US of Pope Francis and the World Meeting of Families (WMOF) in Philadelphia.

If you are attending any of these events, and wish to be part of our media coverage, as well as secular media coverage please send an email to KKeenan@buffalodiocese.org with the following information:

Name, Parish, Cell Phone Number,
Your social media platform information
(Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Google, Etc),
City/Cities you will be visiting.

The WNY Catholic will be the focal point of coverage of the Papal Visit and WMOF. We are also receiving inquiries from local radio, television and print outlets, looking to contact with pilgrims who will be attending papal and WMF events. Once you e-mail this information, someone from the Office of Communications will follow-up with you.

MARRIAGE MOMENT: It's easy to slip into the habit of grumbling to your spouse. Although occasional venting can be cathartic, this week focus on putting away your grumbling self and balance it with renewed gratefulness. It'll make both of you happier.

PARENTING PERSPECTIVE: "God doesn't ask us to be successful, only faithful." (Mother Teresa) Share with your child a time you had a success, a failure, and a time that it was hard to keep a commitment. I wonder what your child will share.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: In the Gospel, Jesus says to the crowd, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to Me will never hunger, and whoever believes in Me will never thirst." Is God calling you to help others to find Jesus, the bread of life? If you think you are being called to serve as a priest, deacon, sister or brother, call Father Walter Szczesny ~ 716-847-5535. You can also check out the "priest of the Month" stories on our website ~ www.buffalovocations.org!

GOD KNOWS PARENTING IS A WILD RIDE! If you ever wished for practical tools, resources, skill-building techniques, and lots more, one of these free parenting packets is designed just for you. Parenting Packet I: addresses the basic tough tasks of raising children in today's world. Parenting Packet II: is for those separated or divorced. Focuses on positive ways to co-parent well in order to help children of all ages who are profoundly affected by their parents' divorce deal with the pain and upheaval in their lives. Parenting Packet III: death and grief are inescapable. If you feel ill-prepared to discuss death with a child, you are not alone. This packet offers useful tools from preschool through teens. For your free packet, please call the Office of Family Life Ministries at 716-847-2210 or email familylife@buffalodiocese.org.

YOU DID IT FOR ME: Lucette Korouma was forced to leave her home when she was diagnosed with Ebola. The 28-year-old mother with her ailing baby left her village to the nearest one with a hospital. In her journey, her 14-month-old baby died. After her hospitalization and recovery, Lucette still could not return back home. With the support from CRS and other agencies, Lucette receives vouchers to buy food and start a new life.

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES: The world's largest Catholic gathering of families, will be held in Philadelphia from September 22-27. This event is held every 3 years and is sponsored by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for the Family. The theme for this gathering, "Love is Our Mission: The Family Fully Alive," emphasizing the impact of love and life of families on our society. Families and individuals from the Diocese of Buffalo interested in attending this event are encouraged to contact St. Gemma's Catholic Pilgrimages in Buffalo, toll free at 855-710-7663, visit www.takeapilgrimage.com or e-mail rome@takeapilgrimage.com. Pope Francis will attend the closing ceremonies.

FAITH MOMENT REFLECTION: In today's reading from the book of Exodus, we see the Israelites grumbling to Moses about the lack of food in the desert. When God rains down bread from heaven for them to eat, Moses teaches them about God's life-giving generosity. Moses is telling us that God's generosity knows no bounds and He will satisfy our every need. But the nourishment God sends is much more than food to satisfy our immediate hunger. God satisfies our hunger for eternal life. Through Him we find love that leads to true and lasting satisfaction. As Jesus promises, "whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." We only need to trust and believe.

Today's Faith Moment was provided by Christ the King Seminary. You can listen to Faith Moments on WLOF 101.7 FM, WBEN radio 930 AM, or at www.faithmomentsonline.org.

Catholic Outreach*, to build a home for a family in the Philippines.

*A woman invited some people to dinner. At the table,
she turned to her six-year-old daughter and said,
"Would you like to say the blessing?"
"I wouldn't know what to say," the little girl replied.
"Just say what you hear Mommy say," the mother said. The little girl bowed her head and said:
"Dear Lord, why on earth did I invite all these people to dinner?"*

NOTE FROM CATHOLIC CHARITIES: You have made generous sacrifices on behalf of the Catholic Charities Appeal for 2015. Because of your efforts the poor will be fed and clothed and given medicine. Counseling services will be made available to families and individuals who would otherwise not have been able to get professional help it is through the Appeal that people receive counseling for domestic violence, addictions and a myriad of personal and family problems. You are the gift to Catholic Charities and to your neighbors of all faiths.

Gratefully,
Sr. Mary McCarrick, Diocesan Director

40 HOURS OF DEVOTION: St. Maximilian Kolbe
Parish, Corfu, will be holding 40 Hours of Devotion beginning on August 13 in honor of our Patron, whose feast day is August 14. The 40 Hours of Devotion will begin after the 7pm Mass on Thursday, August 13 at our Corfu site (18 West Main Street). There will be continuous adoration until Saturday, August 15 at 11:30am with Benediction and a closing Mass at noon. Everyone is invited to come and pray whenever you can or contact the parish office, 585-599-4833, for more information. The event will be followed by our Annual Theme Basket Auction and Corn Roast on Saturday, August 15 from 5-7pm.

CARE FOR CREATION: Pope Francis began his encyclical, Praise be to you, my Lord: On Care for our Common Home, with the reminder that "St.
Francis of Assisi reminds us that our common home is like a sister with who we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us." (1) "St. Francis was a mystic and a pilgrim who lived in simplicity and in wonderful harmony with God, with others, with nature and with himself. He shows us just how inseparable the bond is between concern for nature, justice for the poor, commitment to society, and interior peace." (10) Action: take time during this summer to enjoy nature and learn God's creativity and love from this wondrous gift God has given us. To learn more, go

One Minute Meditations

St. Maximilian Mary Kolbe

Ordained a priest at a young age,

Maximilian Kolbe was determined to combat religious indifference in his native Poland (now Ukraine) and published a successful magazine to preach the Gospel. When the Nazis invaded in 1939, they noticed Fr. Kolbe and he was eventually imprisoned at Auschwitz. One day, ten men were chosen to die as punishment for a prisoner escape. Fr. Kolbe offered himself instead of a family man. The man saved, Francis Gajowniczek, was present at Fr. Kolbe's canonization.

Hospital for sinners

It can be disappointing when fellow Christians don't seem to act Christ-like. Yes, the Church is made up of imperfect people who may let us down occasionally. Still, the Catholic Church was founded by Jesus, safeguards the Sacraments and helps us grow in holiness. And Jesus never disappoints.

"If we really want to love we must learn how to forgive."

Blessed Teresa of Calcutta

Polish your Catholic compass

Our Catholic faith is like a compass that can point us to a clear path to Heaven. If we aren't careful to keep our compass in working order, however, we can get pulled off course and lose our way.

Keep a sharp lookout. God made us in his image and likeness and we will be happiest when we avoid temptation and do what is good and loving in his eyes. The Beatitudes and the Ten Commandments are roadmaps we can follow.

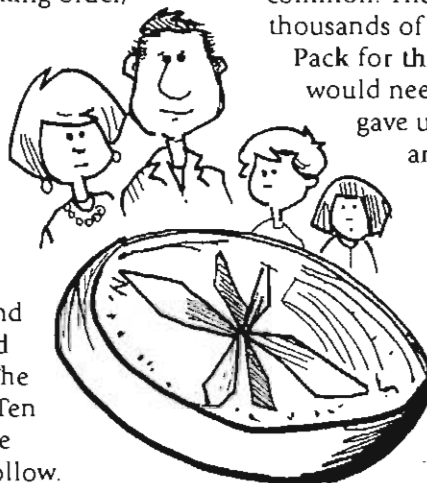

Follow the well-worn path. We don't have to forge our own path. We have the Catholic Church to guide us. For example, an excellent source of answers to puzzling questions is the Catechism of the Catholic Church. It is a summary of what Catholics throughout the world believe in common. The Church also offers us thousands of saints as models.

Pack for the trip. Jesus knew we would need extra strength so he gave us the Sacraments. They are encounters with God and provide sanctifying grace. Fortify your traveler's spirit with the Eucharist and the Sacrament of Reconciliation as often as possible. Journey toward God's voice. While God speaks to us in many ways, his voice is most clearly discerned in Scripture. A daily dose of the Word of God is a sure way to stay on the path to Heaven.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics gesture before the Gospel reading?

God created us to know him, to love him, and to serve him. In Mass, when we make the three Signs of the Cross on our foreheads, lips, and hearts before the Gospel reading, we are dedicating ourselves to God. We pray, "Lord, be on my mind, be on my lips, be in my heart." We ask God to be in us as we hear the Gospel, so that we can truly "love and serve the Lord" by our lives.

Still waiting for God to say "yes?"

Even the most faithful Christians can get discouraged in prayer. It can be disheartening when you have your heart set on something, pray hard for it, but the hoped for result doesn't happen. It is important to remember that God hears you and he always answers prayer. He loves you more than you can imagine and wants the best for you. In fact, he knows what you need better than you do.

Answers to prayer usually fall into one of three responses: 1) Yes, 2) Not right now, and 3) I have a better idea. The best approach is to make your request, trust him to do the right thing, and then look for his answer. Try not to get set on any one answer.

Perhaps God wants you to wait to increase your appreciation or because he doesn't think you are ready yet. Perhaps he has something better in mind. Whatever the answer – and there is always an answer – remember that it comes from his incredible and personal love.

from Scripture

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23
Clean hearts vs. clean hands

The religious leaders sent investigators to check up on Jesus and didn't like what they saw. Not only were Jesus and his followers ignoring some traditional rituals, Jesus scolded the leaders for being hypocrites when they did observe them. They were outwardly obedient so they could look holy instead of taking steps to actually be holy.

For example, devout Jews performed a cleansing ritual before each meal. The Pharisees liked to believe this ceremony kept them from being considered unclean. They were critical because Jesus' followers didn't perform this ceremony. Jesus told them that they were wrong to think being clean on the outside made them acceptable to God. God cares more about the state of our hearts than our hands.

Hypocrisy is when we pretend to be something we aren't and have no intention of becoming. Jesus called the Pharisees hypocrites because they went through the motions of worshipping God so they could appear holy in the eyes of the Jews. We become hypocrites when we follow religious practices carefully but allow our hearts to remain distant from God.

Q & A

If Jesus paid for our sins, why is Confession necessary?

Jesus's sacrifice paid the price for our sins "once for all" (Hebrews 10:10), and made it possible for us to go to Heaven. It did not make us sinless. We retain the inclination to sin.

Fortunately for us, God's mercy is greater than our sins.

On Easter evening, Jesus gave to his Apostles the power to forgive (or not forgive) sins in his name. "He breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained'" (John 20:22-23). "Christ has willed that...his whole Church should be the sign and instrument of the forgiveness and reconciliation that he acquired for us at the price of his blood" (CCC 1455).

In Confession, we receive God's loving mercy, his forgiveness, and the grace to make a fresh start. Although we experience Confession with the priest, he is acting in the person of Christ. Rather than deny the redeeming power of his sacrifice, the sacrament of Confession continues its effects.

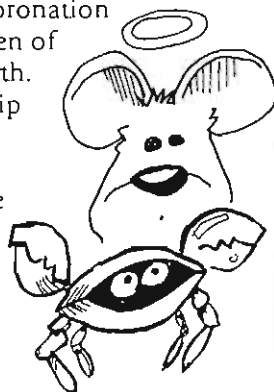

Feasts & Celebrations

August 12 – St. Jane Frances de Chantal (1641). Born wealthy in Dijon, France, Jane married the Baron de Chantal and had four children. Widowed after only seven years, she founded the Order of the Visitation with St. Francis de Sales, for those unable to enter a convent. Altogether, she founded sixty convents.

August 19 – St. John Eudes (1680). Born on a farm in Normandy France, John was priest and parish missionary in the Diocese of Seez. Concerned with the spiritual state of the clergy, he reformed and started seminaries. To promote devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, he founded the Congregation of Jesus and Mary (Eudists).

August 22 – The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In 1954, Pope Pius XII established this feast to celebrate the Coronation of Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth. Mary's queenship is rooted in scripture and tradition. As the mother of the King, Mary can intercede for us in Heaven.
